

“Shapira Design Archive” Seeks Research Assistants/Interns

“Work for Units?”

Spring 2017 Internships:

Student Interns & Research Assistants DAI 575.6, 576, or 899:

Practical Experience: Internships as Design Archival Project Research Assistants, or Applied Creative Research Development

Project Description:

The designated Research Assistant will be working Prof. Ricardo Gomes to pursue the documentation, organization and development of the archive; collaborative design research projects; funding proposals; and promotional development strategies. He/she will organize and develop Design Archive Collection of Dr. Nathan H. Shapira, FA 151C, in conjunction with the development of the proposed DAI Graduate Design Study Center for Social & Community Design.

Qualifications:

The role and responsibilities of the Research Assistant Internship will require the student to be capable of working independently; reliable, engaging and have organizational skills. Basic foundation competency in CS graphic software applications is a Plus+ in addition to organizational, promotion/marketing and design research capabilities

- 1) Digital Archival Development (Phase 2: Slides; Videos; Books; Periodicals; Files)
- 2) Timeline Development Updates
- 3) Blog/Website Updates
- 4) Promotional Graphics and Information Design

Preferred Internship/Research Assistant Hours:

(Minimum of 90 hours per Semester)

Hours may be arranged Mon-Fri 8:00 AM – 6:00 PM

(approx. 9 hours per week, 2-3 hour minimum days - flexible)

Interested students contact:

Prof. Ricardo Gomes ricgomes@sfsu.edu

415-338-2229

