The Hearth Homes Inclusive Design Scholarship was created to assist, encourage and attract promising SF State students to the field of inclusive (Universal) Design. A Committee will be set up to evaluate applicants and select a Hearth Homes Inclusive Design Scholarship recipient annually. Hearth Homes seeks to encourage undergraduate and graduate students advance their academic careers in the field of Inclusive/Universal Design.

Benefits for Hearth Homes Inclusive Designers:

• $5,000 Scholarship Award

The HHID Scholarship Merit:

To demonstrate one’s commitment and capability to create resourceful and innovative design solutions that utilize the principles of Inclusive/Universal Design in support of the product and built-environment relative to home; institutional; recreational and/or workplace settings.

Scholarship Eligibility:

DAI Majors, Gerontology Majors, Interior Design Majors, Apparel Design and Merchandising Majors with an emphasis/interest in Inclusive (Universal) Design. Students must be enrolled in AY 2015-2016 (Fall and Spring Semesters). Students must demonstrate a commitment to continuing studies and/or engagement in Internship; volunteer; or practical experience in the area of inclusive (universal) design applications.

Visit sfsu.academicworks.com/opportunities/3389 for application documents, additional criteria and benefits.